

Getting to Callville Bay Resort & Marina

Callville Bay on Lake Mead is just 30-45 minutes from Las Vegas and an easy half-day's drive from Southern California to the west, Salt Lake metro area to the northeast, or the Phoenix metro areas to the southeast.

The marina property is fully equipped with a retail store, land and water-based fuel, a snack bar and lounge, boat repair and maintenance facilities as well as dry storage and a full-service RV park and campground.

Directions from the Las Vegas, Nevada "Strip"

Lake Mead is located approximately 45-60 minutes from the "Strip". From I-15 South or Las Vegas Blvd., exit on 215 East. 215 East will turn into Lake Mead Drive/Parkway. Stay on Lake Mead Drive/Parkway until you enter the National Park. Approximately 1/10th of a mile after you pay the National Park Service entrance fee at the entrance station, take the very first left, towards Callville Bay. Follow North Shore Road around for approximately 12 miles.

You will see signs: Callville Bay .50 mile, Callville Bay .25 mile. Follow the signs turning right and following winding road to Callville Bay Resort & Marina at the bottom of the hill.

From Southern California (Los Angeles Area)

Take I-15 North towards Las Vegas. Exit on 215 East. 215 East will turn into Lake Mead Drive/Parkway. Stay on Lake Mead Drive/Parkway until you enter the National Park. After you pay the National Park Service entrance fee at the entrance station, take the very first left, towards Callville Bay. Follow North Shore Road around for approximately 11 miles. You will see signs: Callville Bay .50 mile, Callville Bay .25 mile. Follow the signs turning right and following winding road to Callville Bay Resort & Marina.

From Boulder City, Nevada

Take the Nevada Highway to Highway 93 Truck Route (towards Hoover Dam). Turn left at Alan Bible Visitors Center - Lake Shore Drive and enter the National Park. After you pay the National Park Service entrance fee at the entrance station, follow Lake Shore Drive to North Shore Road. Turn right and follow North Shore Road to the Callville Bay sign. Turn right and follow for approximately 4 miles to Callville Bay.